It's Summertime — and That Means Vacation, Shopping & Traveling

Research shows Americans spend their summers getting outside, going somewhere new, and enjoying shopping. Here are some fun stats on how Americans spend their summers according to Statistic Brain:

- 45% of Americans take a summer vacation
- Florida is the most popular state for a destination
- The beach/ocean is the most popular destination, with cities and national parks coming in 2nd and 3rd
- Shopping is the most popular summer activity, followed by visiting historical sights and swimming/water sports
